New Gangster Suspects Arrested; Another Girl Tells of Brutal Attack

SACRAMENTO POLICE SEIZE ARMED TRIO

Story of Revolting Assault
Upon Her in Howard St.
Vice Shack Is Given to Authorities by Woman

Charges 'Spud' Murphy Took
Her to House Where 19
Thugs Mistreated Her—
Grand Jury Probe in S. F.

Arrest of three more men believed to be members of the Howard street gang in San Francisco, the opening of an active campaign against livers and disreputable characters in Oakland, and the information that the grand jury will take a hand in forcing official attention to alleged wide-open conditions in this city marked today's developments in the continued movement to rid the bay cities of gangsters and touts.

Believed to be members of the San Francisco gang James Dale, Neal
Lynch and Joe Valdez are under arrest at Sacramento. The police say the men were crouched behind an automobile in a main business street when arrested and that Dale and Lynch gave a description of two of four men wanted for the automobile theft. They were heavily armed and admitted that they came from San Francisco.

Another girl tells of how it was established beyond doubt that the gang used the shack as a hangout and that they turned many girls there to be attacked. Thelma Fulton, 20, has told the district attorney that on Halloween night Spud Murphy took her to the shack, where she was brutally mistreated and attacked by a number of men. As a result of Miss Fulton's charges and those of the other victims of the gang a rigid investigation of dance halls is being demanded. In all of the stories, the girls say they met the gangsters at the dance halls. Members of the San Francisco police department are under investigation to see it was possible that a place of the nature of the Howard street house could have been in existence without police discovery.

Developments of Last 24 Hours in Gang Crime Wave

Following are the developments in the last twenty-four hours in the vice wave which has resulted in the deaths of six men, including three officers murdered and three gangsters lynched at Santa Rosa, and in brutal assaults upon girls and young women by San Francisco gangsters.

Three armed men arrested in Sacramento admit they went to that city recently from San Francisco, but deny participation in the gang outrages. They are held for investigation. Another young woman bares to the police the story of her brutal mistreatment at the hands of nineteen gangsters in the Howard street shack.

MINISTER'S SON ADMITS CAR HOLDUP

Paul Burlingame, 24, and Merritt Jordan, 19, Are Arrested on Theft Charge
for Euclid Ave. Car Raid

Former Berkeley Pastor's Boy Tells How Theft Was Accomplished and Manner
Which Established Alibi

Notwithstanding the psychopathic treatment which went so far that an operation to overcome criminal tendencies was reported to have been performed upon him at Stanford some months ago, attempts to keep Paul Burlingame, son of Rev. George B. Burlingame, a former Berkeley minister, out of trouble have failed, and today he was held under $10,000
bail, charged with highway robbery.

With Paul, who is 24, was held Merritt Jordan, who is 19. They have confessed, the police say, that they were the youthful wills of the road who early last Thursday morning held up and robbed Motorman

L. C. Brown and Conductor C. W.
Bray of a Euclid avenue street car
as it waited at the end of the line.

Both boys confronted Judge Robert Edgar today and the bail for both was the same.

They were taken at their homes
last night, Frank W. Gregory, Berkeley policeman, Burlingame lived at 1915 University avenue in apartments. Jordan's residence is at 1822 Miyata street.

A gist of a statement accompanying the confession, the police said, was that Burlingame, who has been selling automobiles, and Jordan, who works in the shipyards, had been friends for years, and that the latter had been in the car conductors' proved a deep, too deep, temptation.

BURLINGAME ADMITS
BERKELEY CAR HOLDUP

Burlingame made the following statement:

"On Tuesday, December 7, I went with Merritt Jordan to a company around Berkeley in my car, and then back home at 10 p. m. and then went to Oakland.

"I came back from Oakland about 11:30 p. m. and drove out to Alameda Hopkins to the circle on Spruce to Regal road and Euclid. On the way up to the carline end the holdup was discussed. Jordan held up the car and drove down to Oakland, and saw Jim Duncan and arranged an alibi for Merritt and myself that we went to a show.

"Then we came back out home,
and I went to bed. I had some gin and drink at the start, and so did Jordan.
Then after the matter was all over I got $12 and he got the bal-

Fights Off Assailant BERNICE DE LUCHI, 13-year-old girl, who battled with man in her Berkeley home.

Thug Crawls Into Room
Where Bernice De Luchi,
13, Is Sleeping. But Flees
After a Desperate Struggle

Threats of death did not prevent 13-year-old Bernice De Luchi of Berkeley from screaming for help when a thug who had torn the blankets from her bed stood over her and warned her against making an outcry. With the man's hand pressed over her face with such force that her nose was torn and bleeding, the girl twisted, struggled and screamed until he fled in fright.

For the last few nights Bernice,
who has been sleeping in a room near the fire in the dining room of the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph De Luchi, 3239 Ellis street, it was at 2:30 o'clock this morning that she saw a man climb into a window, and watched him cross the room to her bedside. Quickly the man pulled off the bedclothes and clapped his hand over the child's face.

SCREAMS CAUSE THUG
TO JUMP OUT WINDOW.

"You keep quiet and I won't hurt
you," he said.

"I won't keep quiet," Bernice managed to say as she twisted under the heavy hand of the burglar. "I will call for my father."

Then the man, terrified by the noise tried with full strength to stifle the child's cry and to force her to struggle and again managed to scream once or twice. There was a noise from upstairs and the thug jumped out of the window.

At first Mr. and Mrs. De Luchi were inclined to believe that the daughter had had an unusually vivid dream, but the blood on her face and the signs of the struggle convinced them of her story and they telephoned to the police.

INTRUDER PRIES OPEN
WINDOW WITH HATCHET.

Investigation by Berkeley policemen show that the man took a hatchet from a window and pried open the dining room window. They are not certain whether the man was a burglar and the encounter with the girl was unprovoked, or if the girl was the victim of a visit from a thug who had been in the man's rough coat and was of medium height.

The affair is causing a renewed investigation of the story told yesterday morning by 18-year-old Marjorie Smith, daughter of Mrs. Carrie Smith, 2022 Harper street, one block from the De Luchi home, and who, at the time she was considered to be a thug.

The little Smith girl awakened her mother at 4 o'clock and declared that a burglar had entered the room that she had found in the house. Her face was badly scratched.

The police investigated, found the front door of the home open, but he saw of low a night might have en-

SCANDALS IN SAMOA ARE INCREASING

Commander Kail Removes Surgeon Who Refused to Declare Terhune Insane
and Is Himself Accused

Other acts by a naval board of inquiry to be one of the officers who influenced unrest among the natives in Samoa, instead establishing a reputation for insubordination.

Two days after the suicide of Governor Terhune, the naval court of inquiry on Nov. 8 opened its investigation. Lieutenant Commander Cecil H. Roucher, who while an officer under Governor Terhune, made charges against the governor, which with the governor's counter charges prompted the investigation, arrived from Mare Island on the opening of the court.

THREE ARE DECLARED
RESPONSIBLE FOR UNREST.

While Lieutenant Commander
Roucher was testifying on the third day of the investigation the court inquiry changed his status from that of an "interested party" to that of a defendant.

The verdict of the court found Kail, Roucher and Arthur A. Greene, a civilian acting as his attorney, responsible for the unrest of the Samoa. Roucher was ordered to leave the islands and to be deported from the islands and no recommendation was made concerning Commander Kail.

U. S. MUST DISARM TOO, SAYS JAPAN

Tokyo Delegate to League of Nations Says His Country
Cannot Reduce Armaments
While America Increases

Committee of Assembly Tells How Disarmament May Be Accomplished in 3 Stages;
Chile to Remain Member

GENEVA, Dec. 11 (by the Associated Press).—Japan cannot reduce her armaments so long as the United States is increasing hers. Viscount Kikujiro Ishii of the Japanese delegation declared, at a meeting of the armaments committee this afternoon when the question of disarmament was under discussion.

Disarmament in three stages is the substance of the recommendation of the committee of the League of Nations, which the Japanese assembly will make to the assembly as the result of its deliberations.

The first stage would be marked by an agreement among the powers to make no further increases in armaments.

The second stage is a gradual reduction in armaments.

The third stage would be that of general complete disarmament, except insofar as arms were needed for police purposes.

PROFAGANDA FOR DISARMAMENT MINDS

M. Doret, delegate from Haiti, succeeded in securing the adoption of an amendment providing that the councils of the league inaugurate a propaganda campaign for "disarmament minds," as he put it, meaning the preparation of the younger generation of the world for the school by proper education in the schools of the league.

Committees of the assembly of the League of Nations were called into session this morning, and the initial session of the assembly was deferred until 4 o'clock today. It was anticipated that the assembly met, decision would be choos-

ed to the manner of choosing the members of the council of the league.

It has been decided by the commission on technical organizations to send the United States a special invitation to name a member of the international advisory committee which will study the question of opium traffic. The commission will also carry out provisions relating to the opium traffic embodied in the various treaties.

SOLUTION FOR PROBLEM FOUND

Members of the international court committee, however, found that they hope to be a solution of the jurisdiction problem that has arisen, who have objected to this feature of the proposed international court. They have inserted a clause in the proposed plan which would provide that a state which is desirous of an arrangement by which the proposed nation may cite an offender before the tribunal may signify its acceptance of the provision or obligation by which the offender would further submit to the tribunal his obligatory jurisdiction would become reciprocally binding upon all those nations which signify their acceptance. This is far from meeting the original intentions of some states, but hope is expressed that the example furnished by the first nations to accept the clause will be a moral force strong enough to induce others to follow a similar course.

Conditional acceptance by Holland of the invitation of the League of Nations to contribute a portion of the military force to be sent by the league to the Vilna district for the plebiscite was announced today. The acceptance is subject to passage of suitable legislation by the Dutch parliament.

Yugoslavia has sent a note to the league requesting that the fortress and fortified zone of Grodno be excluded from the Vilna plebiscite area.

A dispute between Chile and Bolivia in the assembly today has raised the possibility of the withdrawal of one country or the other from the league.

AND PLEDGED TO MEMORIAL MOVE

Directors of the Oakland recreation department of the Alameda County Nurses' Association have volunteered to aid the children's fund of the Alameda County Public Health Center to erect a memorial to the late Miss Ethel Moore. Miss Moore was the former president of the recreation board.

The campaign to obtain military rank for nurses was sponsored in California by Miss Moore, who stood for the rank of lieutenant colonel. She died in 1928. Both groups in appreciation of her services on their behalf, have publicly enrolled in the movement to establish a perpetual monument to her memory.

Each member of the Alameda County Nurses' Association will contribute to a memorial fund to be later added to the $25,000 sum which is called for under the plans for the children's building to be erected at Second and Avenue and East Eleventh Street.

Mrs. Elby Wagner has been appointed general chairman and will carry forward the campaign among the membership.

Herman Johnson and Jay B. Nash were appointed to the personnel of the subcommittee of the playground department. By resolution the secretary was instructed to present the project by letter to every member in the department. Johnson will shortly outline a plan of campaign.

ADDICOTT GIVEN OLD SCHOOL JOB

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—At the request of Mayor Rolph, who appeared before the Board of Education in person yesterday, James E. Addicott was restored to the position of principal of the Polytechnic High School. The mayor said that he made the recommendation after the city attorney had given his opinion that the board had exceeded its authority in dismissing Addicott without sufficient cause.

Miss Sarah Jones refused to vote as requested, and her resignation was accepted by the board. He then appointed Edward Rainey as temporary director and he voted with directors A. A. D'Amico and Alice Ross Power to reinstate Addicott. George W. Gallagher, who is not present, thus avoiding the necessity of following the mayor's advice or resigning.

It was announced later that Mrs. Frederick C. S. S. was appointed to Miss Jones' place.

Five Burglaries Are Reported to Police

At Westwood, 1911 Third avenue, reported to the police that a sneak thief entered his home by breaking a window in the rear of the house and stole clothing valued at $50.

A quart of jewelry was stolen from the home of Mrs. E. J. Wood, 687 Jean street, by a thief who also used a window in the rear of the house as an entrance.

Carl E. Fienue, 1482 San Pablo avenue, lost a valuable watch and chain.

Drawing instruments valued at $100 were stolen from a teacher by a sneak thief in the Oakland high school, according to a report made by J. Rosen of 1061 Seventh street.

Prayer Week Is Arranged By Adventists

The Seventh Day Adventist will observe the week of prayer during this year from December 11 to 18. It has been the custom of the denomination for the last thirty-five years to set apart a week each year during which the entire denomination, numbering 10,000,000 and fifty thousand strong, unite in special services to seek God for a deeper spiritual life. Whenever possible daily services are held, when the same service, prepared by one of their leading ministers, is presented to the entire constituency. The seven churches in the bay section will observe this week of prayer, starting at 10 a. m. and ending at 7:30 p. m. Tomorrow night, at 7:30, the sermon subject will be "The Everlasting Gospel, or Some of the Essential Features of the Advent Message," by Prof. H. C. Lacy, who holds the Biblical chair in the Foreign Missionary seminary, located at Washington, D. C. He is a native of China, being on a world tour of missions.

WILL TALK ON PEACE
Professor Horace W. Bundy, of New York, where he was a Red Cross worker, will speak at the Oakland Church of the International Bible Students, Eleventh and Franklin streets, tomorrow. His subject will be "The League of Nations: The People's Solution for Universal Peace."

day evening an entertainment with the very best features, comedies, cartoons and travelogue films is given. To these are invited the people of the church and of the community. No admission is charged, but a silver offering is taken to cover the expense of the films. This evening is becoming more and more popular for the people appreciate this effort to give to them clean and helpful entertainment. Every other evening and nearly every afternoon is used either for church work or in connection with the young people of the church and in the community. Rev. H. W. Tweedie, the pastor, directs the community work.

Miss M. Virginia Adams, who is a graduate of the Baltimore Presbyterian Training School for Christian Workers has been secured to take charge of the religious education and social activities of the church, and as the third member of the staff, R. L. Louch, a student at the San Francisco Theological Seminary has been secured for the week ends to direct activities among the elder boys and to help the pastor in directing the community work.

With this extension of work, the pulse of the whole church has been quickened. The Sunday services are steadily increasing in attendance, the Sunday school has made a very decided gain, and a young peoples meeting for the week ends has been successfully organized. Most gratifying of all, however, is the touch which now is laid with all the people of the community for in this way the church is able to reach the people felt by all.

At the First Congregational church, Rev. F. J. Van Horn will propose that the best Christmas gift to the city of Oakland will be to drive the prize-fighters out of the Auditorium. He will give some startling facts, and call attention to the statements of officials concerning the patent evasion of the law, and at both services the people will have opportunity for expression of feeling in the matter.

At the morning service Rev. Stanley Ross Fisher will speak on "Young America Amid Old Temptations." Rev. Fisher, after notable war service in England and France, became co-pastor of the American church in Paris and came direct from intimate knowledge of French and European affairs.

At the evening service, after action in the "Clean City" campaign, Rev. Lloyd L. West will speak on "Herod's Murderers Still Busy." West knows Eastern Europe and Asia Minor and will give the latest news from the seat of war.

The chorus choir under Eugene Blanchard is preparing great Christmas programs of the usual high order and will sing at both services Sunday.

REV. THOMAS WILL TALK ON WORLD VIEW

The subject of the sermon at the evening service at Trinity Church, Telegraph avenue and Twenty-ninth street, tomorrow will be "The Ex-emption of the Second Coming." The subject is one which occupies many minds, and there are many different ideas about it. Chiefly, it is a question whether our outlook upon the present world is optimistic or pessimistic, dealing with the question of mortal parting, the social reconstruction or shifting their responsibility for making a better world upon a supernatural intervention of supernatural power. Rev. Lloyd R. Thomas will preach the sermon dealing with these questions.

There will be a brief organ recital, beginning at 7:30 p. m., at which the organist, Alex. McCurdy, 15 years old, will play the following selections: "Prelude," by Lemmens; "Water Music," by Vivaldi; and "Hymn of the Faith," by Weel.

At the morning service, 11 o'clock, the pastor will preach on the theme, "The Spirit of Love—Unlimited Fellowship."

The annual election of officers of the Sunday school of the First Lutheran church will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The pastor of the church, Rev. G. H. Hillerman, will speak at the 11 o'clock service, giving a practical and comparative study of the lives of Jesus Christ and John the Baptist.

The pastor, F. Knudsen, will preach on "The Law of the Sexes—Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery."

Knudsen, the pastor, will deliver the anniversary sermon. Rev. C. N. Hange of San Francisco will speak at the evening service at 8 o'clock. Three years later it was re-organized and became the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church. After trying two other locations the present church and parsonage on Twentieth street and San Pablo avenue, were constructed.

Since that time the church has made a steady progress, gradually clearing up the church debt which was incurred by the construction of the building.

The first pastor was Rev. C. J. Larsen, who is now superintendent of the Pacific District of the Western Norwegian-Danish Conference. Other pastors include the Reverends J. Jacobson, C. F. Eltzholz, Grethert Anderson, A. Peterson, Martin, Nelson, E. J. Lundegaard, F. A. Scaville, R. Gjerding and A. Christensen. The present pastor, F. Knudsen, has served the church for over two years.

FIGHT OVER MOLE WILL GO BEFORE FEDERAL BOARD

Supreme Court Action May Be Sought to Compel Joint Use of Facilities.

In its fight to force the removal of the Santa Fe railroad from the Oakland mole the Southern Pacific today is facing the full authority of the Interstate Commerce Commission. From a matter of a hearing before the State commission the question has become one of national significance with the understanding everywhere that nothing short of a Supreme Court decision can now accomplish the removal of the Santa Fe terminal to Richmond.

The Federal commission, which telegraphed Mayor Davis a few days ago that it had requested the two railroads to continue the joint use of the mole until the final decision had been reached, today followed up that action with a more decided move. The State commission has been asked to hold hearings as representatives of the Federal body, a request that means the larger commission has sustained the smaller one and that it is definitely in the right.

ASKS STATE AID
The telegram to the California Railroad Commission from the Interstate Commerce Commission reads:

"We have requested Southern Pacific and Santa Fe to continue present arrangement joint operation Oakland terminals pending investigation. Would appreciate greatly if you could hold hearing under last sentence of paragraph three of section thirteen of Interstate Commerce Act and submit record with your recommendations on question of proposed abandonment of services and joint use of terminals under the applicable provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act."

The paragraph referred to reads: "The Commission (Interstate Commerce Commission) is also authorized to avail itself of the co-operation, services, records and facilities of such state authorities (railroad commission) in the enforcement of any provision of this act."

The telegrams have been read into the hearing now in progress and are part of the record.

NATIONAL ATTENTION
Following the reading of the telegram by Railroad Commissioner Frank R. Devin, who with Commissioner H. D. Loveland is conducting the hearing, it was announced that because of the absence from San Francisco of three members of the California board no reply to the telegram of Chairman Devin would be made immediately. Commissioner Devin said, however, that the Interstate body would be communicated with on the return to San Francisco of Commissioners E. O. Edgerton, Irving Martin and H. W. Brundage. Commissioner Devin further said that he would go ahead with the present investigation and proceeding on Thursday next week. The Southern Pacific evidence is all in. On Monday morning the hearing on the injunction proceedings brought against the Southern Pacific railroad to compel joint operation of the terminal will be heard before Judge Frank Murphy in San Francisco.

The action of the Interstate Commerce Commission is held to show the national attention that has been attracted to the case as an attack on railroad commission rights and jurisdiction and as the opening gun in a battle against the commission rule of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Southern Pacific has not even admitted the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Aid Asked to Help Save Brittany's Peasant Maids

Mlle. Juliette L'Hostis, French student and teacher, who is aiding maids of Brittany to be self-supporting

To Keep Girls Away from Paris U. of C. Instructor Would Sell Their Dainty Laces

BERKELEY, Dec. 11.—Dainty peasant maids of Brittany will be kept far from the bright lights of Paris, if Mlle. Juliette L'Hostis, student and instructor at the University of California, late of Brest, France, has her way.

And Mlle. L'Hostis, a petite spoken-woman of her country, is asking the aid of Berkeleyans in helping to do likewise for her sisters over the sea. Coming to the University of California to study for her master's degree and incidentally to fill a teaching position in the French department, Mlle. L'Hostis has brought from France a rare collection of laces made by girls in Brittany.

For the fair peasant maids in far-away France Mlle. L'Hostis is performing a labor of love in acting as saleswoman for their wares.

"Let us one way help them earn money and keep them from Paris," she explains. "If the girls can be rewarded sufficiently for their labors they will have no desire to go elsewhere to earn more money. Once a pretty Brittany peasant girl is in Paris she is lost. With her picturesque costume, her ignorance of the world and lack of education, she is marked almost as soon as she enters the city. It is for this reason that I am disposing of laces which they are sending to me. All of the money is sent back to the girls."

The laces which Mlle. L'Hostis has received from Brittany are the finest pieces of handwork made into collars, dollies and other bits of daintiness. Mlle. L'Hostis first came to this country to accept a scholarship at Rockford College, Illinois. It was her interesting task on her trip to America to act as interpreter for more than 100 war brides coming from France, Belgium, England and other places to join their American husbands. During the war she served as secretary to Y. M. C. A. officials at Brest.

So keen has been the interest in Mlle. L'Hostis' work for the peasant maids of Brittany that she was the honor guest at gatherings arranged at Clay Court and the Hotel Claremont, where more than 100 of her war brides were disposed of. At the former place Mrs. R. T. Holbrook, wife of Professor Holbrook of the French department of the university, acted as sponsor for the gathering. Mlle. L'Hostis has the laces on display at the home of Mrs. H. Goss, 2335 Dwight way, where she resides, and also at the studio of Mrs. A. Olson, 2222 Telegraph avenue.

BOY'S SHIN BONE GRAFTED ON HIS SPINE; HE LIVES
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11.—With a piece of bone about the size of a new pencil removed from his shin and grafted on his spinal column, 13-year-old Cleve Hibbs is expected to leave a hospital within a few weeks a healthy boy.

His body has been encased in a cast for two years following an accident in which he fell from a tree and broke his spine. For two weeks previous to the operation he had lain continuously on his stomach.

SLAYER IS CONVICTED
BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 11.—Paulo Rodriguez, laborer, was convicted of manslaughter by a jury in the Kern county superior court for killing Norman B. Carr, a fellow worker. Carr was struck on the head with a shovel while the men were working on the Southern Pacific railroad at Bakersfield, twenty miles east of Bakersfield. Carr's home was in Los Angeles.

LOCAL SCHOOLS GET CLEAN BILL FROM INSPECTOR

Sanitation Recommended in Report of Expert to Health Office.

In response to a request from Business Manager Lloyd Barzee of the Board of Education for a full report on the much-discussed plumbing and sanitary conditions of the Oakland schools, Dr. Kirby Smith, municipal health officer, today sent Barzee the report of the city plumbing inspector on the subject. This, it is understood, will be formally laid before the Board of Education at its next meeting.

The report of the plumbing inspector deprecates a certain patented system of sanitation which is old and hard to keep clean, he says. "The general sanitation of the schools, aside from these recommendations, is good," says the plumbing inspector.

Barzee has asked Dr. Smith for a full analysis. "As a superintendent of buildings and grounds of the Oakland public schools," he said, "I should like to receive a copy of reports on conditions in our schools, and I wish to assure you of my desire to keep them clean."

Dr. Smith replied: "I do not consider this matter confidential, all reports being public property; however, it is always my desire to keep away from controversy and sensationalism, and I can assure you of my earnest desire to assist in every way possible."

The report of the plumbing inspector starts by noting that the system of painting the school sanitary facilities in dark colors is wrong and that white or light colors should be employed. He then cites the following schools as having a system which is antiquated, hard to clean, and should be replaced whenever possible: Campbell, Dewey, Elmhurst, Franklin, Fruitvale, Grant, Harrison, Hawthorne, Intermediate, Melrose and Prescott.

Three other schools, says the plumbing inspector, have systems a little better, but not much. "Sequoia, Manzanita and Laurel schools are somewhat better, but the system should be discouraged," he says.

A total of 14 schools is found to have unsatisfactory sanitary arrangements.

INQUIRIES CUT STATE SLACKER TOTAL TO 4686

Although California was charged with 38,000 deserters at the close of the war, by publication of the fact in the newspapers, the state information was received from many who were falsely charged with this offense and who really were in the military service, until the list was reduced to 4,686, according to a letter received by County Clerk George E. Gross today from Adjutant General J. J. Borree.

The letter states that Governor Stephens, anxious that all former military officials, as well as service men themselves who entered the army or navy through any other channel than a regular draft board, furnish all information possible in order that no one may be falsely charged with desertion.

New Trial Asked for J. H. Powers
Argument for a new trial for J. H. Powers, formerly president of the Oakland Bakers' Union and secretary of the Pacific Coast Metal Trades Council, convicted of failing to render aid after having injured a pedestrian with his automobile, was presented before Judge Church today. Judge Church took the motion under advisement until Monday afternoon.

PEDAGOGUES IN TYROL ASK FOR ASSISTANCE
An appeal from the teachers of the Tyrol for food and aid was received today by Superintendent of Schools Fred Hunter from Innsbruck, where it is pleaded that "the land of Andreas Hofer is in distress."

According to the appeal, directed to all the school heads in the Tyrol, many widows of teachers killed in the war are in deplorable plight, without sufficient food or clothing. The Tyroleans suggest that action be started by the teachers of the United States for the teachers of the Tyrol. The communication was referred to the Oakland Teachers' Association.

Floating Driveways Ordered Removed
Wooden driveways, floating down the gutters during the heavy rains, have constituted such a nuisance that the commissioner of streets today decided to ask the police to serve property-owners notices to remove them.

A policeman in uniform, it is believed, will exert more influence in having the law obeyed. There is an ordinance making such gutter-driveways illegal and making their owners subject to prosecution for a misdemeanor.

Frank A. Leach to Continue Story On Wonders of Desert

FRANK A. LEACH, whose wild life series causes furor in Eastbay.

Second Installment On Wild Life Will Appear in Sunday's Tribune.

More wonders of the desert of Southern California will be revealed in the next installment of the "Wild Life in California" serial by Frank A. Leach, former director of the United States mint, in tomorrow's Oakland TRIBUNE.

The first installment was received with tremendous interest throughout the Eastbay. A number of schools have discussed the articles in their natural history classes.

Sunday's installment will deal with the wonders of the strange cholla cactus, which, tradition says, shoots its barbed spines at human beings. The mystery of the sand dunes will be explained, showing just what makes mountains of sand at certain points of the desert. Carnal bugs will be given attention as they revealed their secrets under the direct observation of the writer.

Bird life and plant life will be intimately discussed.

Two Autoists Absolved from Blame by Jury

BERKELEY, Dec. 11.—Charles H. Hunt, former Berkeley Boy Scout executive, residing at the McKinley Court apartments, and Mrs. Florence Daily, 2318 Grove street, were exonerated of all responsibility for the deaths of William Springer, 60 years old, and Mrs. Martha Wilson, 45 years old, by a coroner's jury sitting yesterday in the office of Deputy Coroner Frank Berg.

Springer, who was president Central Alaska Fisheries, was struck by Hunt's car as he was crossing Shattuck avenue at Center street while Mrs. Wilson was run down by Mrs. Daily while buying meat from a butcher wagon in front of her home at 1715 San Pablo avenue. Both accidents happened in rainy weather, the machines skidding from the control of drivers. The coroner's jury found that both deaths occurred from fracture of skulls and that the accidents were unavoidable.

FOR SMOOTH Creamy Fudge

Four rounded tablespoonsful Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate; two cupsful sugar; one cupful of milk; butter the size of a small hen's egg; one teaspoonful vanilla; two drops lemon extract. Boil sugar, butter and milk until thick and add chocolate; cook until thread spins when tried; then add extract and take from fire, stirring until nearly cold or becomes sugary. Turn on a well-buttered dish and cut in squares.

Nor need your candy-making art stop at chocolate fudge. For Ghirardelli's makes the most toothsome treats imaginable! Chocolate sticks, chocolate meringue kisses, coconut and chocolate candy and a host of other "goodies." Besides, it's already ground—no bother—no grating!

HOTEL GUEST IS ARRESTED ON BAD CHECK COMPLAINT

Police Plau Insanity Charge Against Him Also, Wife
Seeks Relatives.

With a string of alleged bad checks behind them, an insanity charge planned by the police against the husband, whose alleged uncovered checks led to his arrest at the Hotel Oakland, where he and his young wife were stopping, Mrs. Elmer B. Pattillo today moved from the luxurious suite to the home of her step-mother, Mrs. Ruby Lutz, at 134 Santa Rosa avenue, where her step-mother refused to let her be interviewed. Mrs. Lutz refused herself to discuss her step-daughter's predicament, saying that the girl's lawyer would take care of everything.

NO MONEY TO MEET CHECK
According to Police Inspectors Moser and Ruckelshaus, with his wife, traveled between here and Los Angeles selling an auto polish which he manufactured on a small scale. Bank books found in his possession indicate that he had checking accounts in seven banks, including one in Oakland. Deposits ranging from $50 to $100 are shown to have been made in each bank, under various names. The accounts in each instance are declared by the police to have been exhausted by checks which came in from cities visited by Pattillo and his wife.

The police declare that Pattillo bought an automobile from a San Francisco dealer, giving a check for its purchase. They say he drove the car to Los Angeles, using it en route to demonstrate the qualities of his polish. The check was returned and he was arrested in the southern city, where he was charged with insanity and later released, according to reports here. He then went to Fresno, where he established two checking accounts. From Fresno he came to Oakland, his wife and child stopped at the Hotel Oakland, where he engaged expensive quarters. He tendered the hotel management a check for $110 and another for $5 on a Fresno bank. The check for $110 was returned and the hotel management swore to a complaint for his arrest.

According to Desk Sergeant Nederman of the police department, Pattillo came to the police station with his wife on two occasions endeavoring to have some one arrested for tendering him a bad check.

Marriage Is Scored But Divorce Given
Declaring the marriage seemed to have been one of convenience and that if the plaintiff had asked for alimony he would have denied the decree as being sought on mercenary grounds, Superior Judge T. W. Harris today granted a divorce to Mrs. Margaret Grover, nurse at the Fabian hospital, from L. F. Grover, former contractor.

Mrs. Grover testified that she was forced to work during all of her married life with Grover, most of the time providing him with money and frequently securing positions for him, which he retained only a few weeks. She said he never gave her Christmas presents or treated her as a wife, asked for money to buy an automobile and became sulky when refused, disappearing for eight months when refused $38 and continually failed to provide for her. She said she earned $40 a week as a nurse. They were married November 21, 1917, and separated April 1, 1919. There are no children.

Missionary Pageant to Be Given in Church
A missionary pageant, "Christ in America," will be presented at the annual praise service in Brooklyn Presbyterian church, East Fifteenth street and Twelfth avenue, Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. A prologue will celebrate the tercentenary landing of the Pilgrim Fathers in America. A cast of half a hundred young people of the church are rehearsing for the colorful program of songs, music and readings. Mrs. William Nat Friend, Mrs. James Speer, Mrs. Helen Murray Peterson, and Mrs. Margaret King are taking the prominent roles.

Following the production of the pageant, a reception will be held. The celebration will mark a reunion of former as well as new members of the congregation.

Messenger Boy Is Killed in Collision
Arthur Small, 16-year-old Western Union messenger boy, 1721 Thirty-third avenue, was instantly killed this morning when his motorcycle skidded into a Standard Oil truck driven by O. Jones. The accident happened at East Seventeenth street and Ninth avenue. J. C. Hammel, 842 East Nineteenth street, took the boy to the Emergency hospital.

O. B. Heller, 1638 Addison street, Berkeley, who witnessed the accident, said that the truck was going east on Seventeenth street, and Small was riding north on Ninth when his machine skidded on the wet pavement and crashed into the truck.

SCHOOL ON PARK GROUNDS OPPOSED

Protest against the occupancy of Independence Square in East Oakland by the junior high school, proposed to be erected there, will be voiced at a neighborhood meeting to be held at the bandstand in the park tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Decision on placing the school in the park still has not been reached. The council, acting upon the advice of City Attorney H. L. Hagan, has refused to turn over the park to the school-board for this purpose. Hagan contends that the city and the school district are different entities and that the city is, therefore, not empowered to give over control of the park in this manner.

Neighbors of the park declare that the question is not purely local, but that, in general, the breaking down of the city's park system might follow from the precedent proposed to be set here.

A case of rain tomorrow's protest meeting will be held at the residence of W. M. Huffman, 1740 East Nineteenth street. The park is at East Sixteenth street and Eighteenth avenue.

HEALTH IMPAIRED BY CRUELTY, WIFE CONTENDS IN SUIT

Million Dollar Estate Is Divided by Martha and
W. A. Bissell.

Cruelty which impaired her health is charged by Mrs. Martha Bissell, Eastbay society woman, against her millionaire husband, William H. Bissell, in a suit just filed in the superior court.

That the $1,000,000 estate of the late W. A. Bissell, railroad man, and the $300,000 estate of Con. W. Bissell, the mother, has been divided out of court by the couple is the statement made by Mrs. Bissell in her suit.

Mrs. Bissell asks the custody of the three children, Martha, 9 years old, William, 11, and Louis, 7, who together inherit one-eighth of the $300,000 estate of the mother.

The plaintiff is the daughter of the late Lewis T. Snow, San Francisco club member. Her husband is an electrical engineer. Until recently they have lived at Livermore but a short time ago removed to the late Lewis T. Snow, San Francisco, near Indian trail, in Thousand Oaks. Mrs. Bissell is said to have purchased the Kyrle home with $10,000 left her as a bequest.

They were married in Alameda June 4, 1905.

HEARING ON DEPOT REQUEST IS RESET

The railroad commission hearing concerning the proposed new depot at Fourteenth and Franklin has been postponed until December 18, according to a notice received today by City Attorney Hagan from the commission.

The continuance was granted by the railroad commission at the request of the Southern Pacific, because the railroad's attorneys are required to appear before Judge Murkusky in San Francisco December 13 to show cause why a permanent injunction should not be granted compelling the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads to continue the joint use of the Oakland pier terminal.

THREE COAST LEAGUE BASEBALL PLAYERS ARE INDICTED

ANDY SMITH'S BRUINS ARE LEARNING SOMETHING ABOUT OHIO STATE'S STYLE OF PLAY

BORTON, MAGGERT AND RUMLER ARE NAMED IN GRAND JURY REPORT

Nathan Raymond, Alleged Seattle Gambler, Is Also Indicted; Bail Is Fixed at $1000

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11.—Indictments charging criminal conspiracy were returned against four persons here yesterday by the Los Angeles county grand jury which for several weeks has been investigating charges of alleged "crookedness" in 1919 games in the Pacific Coast Baseball League.

The four named were W. Baker (Babe) Borton, former first baseman of the Vernon club, whose charges precipitated the investigation; Earl V. Maggert, former outfielder for the Salt Lake club; V. C. Rumler, Salt Lake outfielder; Nathan Raymond, alleged gambler, Seattle.

The indictments were returned before Judge Frank R. Willis of the criminal department of the superior court, who fixed bail in each case at $1000.

None of the men named was in court and bench warrants were issued for them. It was said if any could be located in Los Angeles they probably would be arraigned tomorrow.

It was said Borton, who was released by the Vernon club and represented by President W. H. McCarthy of the league, was working for a Los Angeles motion picture company.

Maggert, released by Salt Lake, was said to be in the coal business in Berkeley, Cal.

Rumler, suspended for five years, was said to be in Salt Lake City.

Raymond is believed to be in Vancouver, B. C.

The indictments charge conspiracy to "throw" baseball games, the specific incident named being the Salt Lake-Vernon series in Los Angeles in October, 1919. It claims the Vernon team of charges made by Borton that a "slush fund" was raised by members of the club to "buy" the 1919 league pennant, but states that if the race had been played on its merits, the Los Angeles team would have won the season's championship.

But, aside from Borton, who admitted offering bribes to various players of the league, the grand jury found that Vernon players had no part in the alleged conspiracy.

FAMOUS FAN FUND.

It also declared the "fan fund" raised in 1919 by Los Angeles fans for the team—either Vernon or Los Angeles—which won the pennant, was not diverted to any illegal purpose, as charged by Borton.

The charge of criminal conspiracy is punishable by not more than two years imprisonment or a fine of not more than $5000, or both.

"Our aim has been to help baseball, not to harm it," said James Irvine, former of the grand jury in the case, who said the indictments were made to clean up the game and our boys—our future citizens—can look up to it again.

The indictments recite that "by reason of the known professional skill" of Borton, Maggert and Rumler, spectators "were induced and did" admission to see said games by reason of their belief in the integrity of said players.

WARRANTS ISSUED.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11.—(United Press.)—Bench warrants for the arrest of W. B. (Babe) Borton, Earl V. Maggert, William C. (Bill) Rumler, and Nathan Raymond, were issued yesterday by Judge Frank R. Willis following their indictment on charges of criminal conspiracy, in connection with the 1919 Pacific Coast league pennant.

The indictment came after a county grand jury investigation which lasted several months.

Borton was first baseman for the Vernon club until last summer when he was discharged. Maggert and Rumler were released by the Salt Lake club at the same time. The former permanently and the latter given a five-year suspension. Raymond, better known in sporting circles as "Nate," is a resident of Seattle.

All four men are charged with conspiracy to throw games. The series between Salt Lake and Vernon in Los Angeles in October, 1919, is specifically mentioned as the basis for the indictment.

Under the charge the men are liable for imprisonment not exceeding two years or a maximum fine of $5000 or both.

Maggert Is Not Worried Over His Indictment, He Says

Earl Maggert, indicted outfielder of the Salt Lake club, is worrying not at all over the same time. Maggert was so busy delivering coal to his Berkeley customers that he had little time to talk.

"I just saw it in the papers that I had been indicted, and I was not at all worried," he said. "That's fine for when the case comes into open court we will be able to get a show-down and know how it all comes out."

Maggert said that he had been called to deliver coal and I got to start on a hunting trip tonight. I'll be ready to go to Los Angeles whenever they want me. I'd go today but I gotta deliver the coal and go duck hunting."

LOOK 'EM OVER CAREFULLY, CALIFORNIA

Here are some of the young men California will have to tackle New Year's afternoon when they meet the Ohio eleven at Pasadena. The pictures were made especially for The TRIBUNE at the Ohio football lot. The large figure on the left is MEYERS, left end, a 175-pounder with a lot of football knowledge. In the center is the fighting face of WIECHE, right guard, a cute little person who weighs only 215 pounds. NEMECEK, who is shown on the left is a sickly little fellow who tips the beam at a mere 203 pounds. BLAIR and TAYLOR, two of the guards, are playing their first year on the varsity, but they have shown considerable skill.

Ball Players Are Doing Their Bit For the Infirmary

The amateur ball players are doing their bit to make Christmas something worth while for the inmates of the County Infirmary. Yesterday J. P. Alverna, who donated a five spot. This morning's mail brought a dollar from C. J. Jordan of the Elks Club.

The fund is now $95.50 strong.

One Soccer Game On This Side of the Bay for Tomorrow

A glimpse at the schedule of soccer games in the California Football League for tomorrow shows that no game has been billed to take place at Fruitvale Recreation park as usual we expected after the turnout of fans at the first game which was played there last Sunday. So tomorrow the Eastbay fans will not have choice of two games on this side of the bay. The only game on this side will be played at Washington Park in Alameda, the Rangers and Colosseum Union Irons being the opposing teams.

The Moore shipyard team of Oakland is scheduled to play the Vampires at Eighth and Market in San Francisco this afternoon. The other games on tomorrow's schedule which will be played at San Francisco, follow:

OHIO AND THE BEARS LOOM UP ABOUT EVEN IN BUCKING THE LINE

By DOUG MONTELL

Two entirely different styles of play will be seen when Ohio State meets California on the gridiron at Pasadena on New Year's Day. The difference will be noticed, not only in the plays themselves, but in the manner of execution. What one team lacks in one department of the game it makes up for in others and a comparison of man for man shows but little in favor of either. It will be a case of speed on the side of Ohio State against the powerful attack that has characterized California's style of play all season. Speed is found not only in the individual men on the Buckeye squad, but in the lightning manner and finish with which the champions of the big ten carry out their signals and plays. No such speed has been noticed in the work of the Bruins all year, and while speed will not win a ball game by itself, as was seen in the case of opponents California has faced this season, with a strong team of championship class, it will count for a great deal.

Snap Needed to Put Over Trick Plays

But on trick plays and forward passes speed and snap is a most essential element. A false step or delay in calling of signals may easily allow the other team to size up the coming play and outguess the team on the offensive. California has plenty of forward passes that have been shown to be wonderful ground gainers, but to date the California record on forward passes has been nothing wonderful. During the season the Bruins have tried a total of sixty-six forward passes. Of this number they have completed thirty-six, have allowed twenty-eight to be intercepted, and have had two intercepted. This last fact is greatly to the credit of Coach Andy Smith.

Any team that can pull off sixty-six forward passes and have but two intercepted has something on the ball. It simply means that California's forward passes have been pulled in a manner that opponents, not but a few yards away, can see the ball and that brings out more clearly than ever the fact that twenty-eight went wild. With ends like Miller and Berkeley receiving passes the throw must be wild or knocked down in order for them to fail to catch it.

The only thing that California needs in the time between now and the big struggle is to perfect the throwing of forward passes in this respect. The Blue and Gold, for Harry Woodman and Pete Stinchcomb both got off their passes with deadly accuracy. The only thing that California needs is to have no such phenomenal receiver on the team as Blake Muller, the end, Sykes and Myers, are better than the ordinary and are not forced to make circus catches of the variety pulled by Muller and Hall against Stanford.

California's line bucking looks to be about the equal of that of Ohio State. The Bears have outbucked the teams that have opposed them to date by the ratio of better than 3 to 1. The Bears have gained a total of 2554 yards on bucks and runs from the line of scrimmage in the eight games played this season, better than an average of 300 yards per game. Opposing teams have been held down to a total yardage of 1800 yards in the eight games. Some difference. It shows the thoroughness with which Rotes Rosenblatt has drilled the Bruin line. The center of the California line has been almost a stone wall and the only steady gains have been through Dean at left tackle in the Washington State game when Gillis hammered away for about fifty yards before the gap was filled.

However on line bucking California will have their hands full hitting into the Buckeye line. Men like Capt. Huffman at left tackle, Tarran Taylor at left guard, Nemecek at center, Trott at right guard and Spiers at right tackle are no weaklings and the work of Morrison, Toomey and Strout is going to have to be a lot better down this defense and gain yardage on bucks. These five men on the Ohio line average 191 pounds. With Weiche at right guard in place of Trott the Buckeye line would have twenty-five more pounds.

moose tips the beam at 215 pounds with nature's clothing on. This would help the tackle to tackle average to 156 pounds. California in these same positions will weigh 181 pounds per man, so that at their lightest the Scarlet and Gray will have an average of ten pounds per man through the

YOU CAN'T MAKE JOE BUSHERS BELIEVE WE LIVE IN DRY STATE

All the umpires are going to bat a thousand tomorrow and there will not be any protests coming from any of the managers for the arbitration board of The OAKLAND TRIBUNE Midwinter League to decide. And the little Joe Bushers are prepared to put up a strong argument with any fellow who tries to convince him that this state is bone dry. Old Man Rain paid a visit to the bay cities last night and early this morning, and as far as the bushers and fans are concerned the visit was very much unwelcomed.

The performers in The TRIBUNE league were prepared to put on their usual program of baseball with a couple of extra attractions tomorrow, but the heavy rain during the last twenty-four hours has put the diamonds in such bad shape that announcements were made this morning that the league games being called off. The Class A managers had a pair of double-headers and a single event to offer the fans, and it looked like it would be their biggest day of the season.

The Class A diamonds should stand the rain better than any of the diamonds in the Class B league, and it is almost certain that all games in the "B" league will also be called off. It will be impossible to play any of the Class C games in the morning.

There is no telling what some of these bush clubs will do to play a ball game, and not to let any of the "B" boys slip one over on us, we will

Class B Boys Recommended to Bob Connery

Phil Koerner Says It Is a Tough Job Managing a Bush Club.

By EDDIE MURPHY.

That the big fellows back east think a great deal of Joe Devine as a judge of ballplayers is conveyed in a letter which Joe received yesterday from Bob Connery, scout for the New York Yankees.

Resigning former chucker for the San Francisco Seals, wrote a letter to Connery recommending Calin Buckley, pitcher, and Cardinelli, a third sacker who played with the Pittsburgh, Cal. team, but who are now members of the Central Oakland Merchants in The TRIBUNE Class B league. Connery has written to Devine, giving him a nice boost as a judge of a ball player, and requesting him to look up Buckley and Cardinelli. Joe will do that. He'll think when the Central Oaks are out for their next game, and will then make his report. If the proper material, Connery will sign the boys for the Yankees and recommend that they be farmed to Devine's Calgary club for seasoning.

Connery for thinking a great deal of Our Boy Joe as a judge of players after the classy team of California youngsters that Joe picked up around here last winter.

ROBERTS HAWKS, CHRISTENSEN

In his letter Connery also mentioned Nelson "Chicken" Hawks and Walter (Seacup) Christensen, whom he secured from Devine's club last summer for the Yankees. Connery gave the two California boys the real up and down before signing them for the Yankees and also thinks that one or both of them have a grand chance to stick with the Yankees next season. The Yankees' outfield is due to get a big shakeup next season, writes Connery, and that is good news to the hundreds of baseball bush fans who have been great boosters for the pair of young California outfielders all the time they have played on local lots and with Calgary.

Devine will not have to worry about rounding up another strong club with which to start the Western Canadian league season. Besides losing Hawks and Christensen, Devine will also lose Catcher Kottle and Pitcher Milton Steingraef to major league clubs. But Connery's letter reads like Connery is strong for the Calgary club and will use his influence to have some of the Yankee-castoff youngsters turned over to Devine.

KOERNER ON WARPATH.

We have known Phil Koerner for a long time, but not until the past week have we seen Phil show signs of anger or say any unkind things about a fellow. Phil is managing the Coast Tire and Rubber team in the Class A division of The Oakland TRIBUNE Midwinter league, and has made the announcement that he doesn't care to return to professional ball again, and instead will play in the valley league next season.

across the bay at San Francisco they refuse to let Phil alone and now and then his chances of playing with the Seals next season are mentioned as being hopeless. They never mention, however, of how hard Charlie Graham has tried to get Phil to join the Seals shortly before the close of last season. Phil is a great scout and it is too bad that he can't get a fair shake from the city that he helped to win a Pacific Coast league pennant a couple of years ago.

But is not what is being mentioned of Phil's chances of getting back in the Coast league next season that has riled him. Phil finds it hard to get along in managing a bush team. Jack Mooney, the crack outfielder of the San Francisco sandlots, has been under contract to Koerner for a couple of months, but the several games with his club, but the couple of Sundays saw Jack absent from the Coast Tire bench, and Phil now learns that the Mayrose Dintlers in the San Francisco Winter league have taken him to the city and it was announced at birth to Mooney.

It was announced at birth to Mooney that the transbay winter league that no team under contract to The TRIBUNE league would be allowed to play in the transbay winter league. The TRIBUNE league decided to act accordingly and have no team under contract to San Francisco league.

The leaguers have stuck to their promise, but they are breaking the one made across the bay to the transbay league. It is now up to the transbay leaguers to live up to the gentlemen's agreement or get all the bushers on this side of the bay against them. Of course, the San Francisco leaguers have promised to take action on the matter. In the meantime Koerner is scheming some way to get even if that agreement is not lived up to.

ACCOUNT OF CHADON

COUNT DE GARRON
MADE DEFENDANT
IN DIVORCE SUIT

Coincident with awarding of $105,000 worth of contested property to "Count de Charon," alias Frederick Wright, the "Countess de Charon" or Mrs. Etta Wright, has filed a suit for divorce against her husband. She charges him with desertion and cruelty. At the same time she de-

The de Charons were married in Santa Ana, Cal., January 11, 1915, and according to Mrs. Wright, her husband deserted her September 11, 1919.

The suit against Mrs. Wright for apartment house property at 438 State avenue, 1568 Franklin street and 1744 Franklin street, was started October 26 and ended this week in the awarding of the property to Wright.

Attorney Peter J. Crosby has been retained by Mrs. Wright in the suit which was filed yesterday. Wright is said to have asserted at the close

This is not the first matrimonial venture for either the "Count" or his wife. He is said to have been married and divorced three times before this. Mrs. Wright, who was Miss Etta Rippy, was first married to a man named Hart (in Missouri) and after his death was married to Charles D. Harkrader, who died in 1911.

NAMES CAUSE CONFUSION.

One of the complications of the evidence at the trial that has just ended, arose from the use of both the name of Wright and de Charon by the "Count" who claims that he is a member of the nobility of France. He explained that Wright is the English translation of de

When asked if he still used the French name, he replied, "Yes, in little matters." Later he admitted that he had once been married under that name and had used it in making the deeds that have been contested.

LIQUEUR DRINKS WIFE DIVORCE

Alexander O. Richards inherited $40,000 from his parents, but drank and gambled it away, leaving his wife destitute according to the testimony of Mrs. Mary E. Richards, who was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from him by Judge A. F. St. Sure.

Mrs. Richards said her husband is 66 years old and she is 59. They were married in 1893 at Santa Cruz, where they conducted a private hospital. Mrs. Richards lives at 2501 Prince street Berkeley. One morning in 1913, she said, she sent her husband for a loaf of bread for breakfast. He took all of the money in the house, she declared, and never returned. She did not hear of him again for six weeks. She testified that she had had to work and to depend on her daughter for support. She said her husband liked to drink better than he did to support a wife.

The daughter, Mrs. Bessie Scott Baker, with whom Mrs. Richards lives in Berkeley, testified that her stepfather's brother had sent him to a ranch and offered him a position there with a good salary for the rest of his life, but that he would not remain.

IF TALL, 50 AND HAVE $1,000,000

LONG BEACH, Cal., Dec. 11.—He must be tall, blue-eyed and about 50 years old. Incidentally, he must have $1,000,000. That's the kind of a husband Edna Dru-lucy wants.

Miss Drulucy, who lives in Pueblo, Col., had written to Mayor Lissenby here as follows:

"I am looking for a tall, blue-eyed, 50-year-old bachelor for a husband. He must have a million dollars, same as I. I am small, called pretty, have brown eyes, and never did a bad act in my life. There is no person in this city I would have.

Community Service to Benefit by Dance

while dancing wipe out a small blot that stands against the war-time Community Service, is the plan of directors of that service.

On the night of January 5, at the Arcadia dancing hall they will entertain at a benefit dance. The proceeds will be used to wipe out all debts, amounting to several hundred dollars now outstanding.

The Community Service operated

The Commodore Hotel operated a service men's club and a meeting place for girls, but was forced to close for lack of support November 15.

Since then a number of firms have cancelled debts and all others have made discounts ranging from 20 to 50 per cent.

The executive committee in charge of the dance is composed of O. F. Sanderson, chairman; Horst D. M.

The Effect of Keeping Girls "Innocent" As Jerry Sees It

The Boy Who Is Led Astray and What Instincts Are Guiding Him

To the People Who Care!

Here's a letter that commands my whole soul respect. It's from a Mother, and I wish I knew her for I feel sure that she's a Big Human Being. She doesn't quite agree with me, and I don't quite agree with her, but I feel sure that her letter will prove full of sane helpfulness to many of us, and the spirit in which it is written has certainly made Jerry's heart glad. I've had to shorten the letter, sister, as I must shorten all very long ones, but I'm trying to give the best that's in it.

The Letter

Dear Geraldine: I like you immensely but I do disagree with you on the subject of kissing. You always seem to be on the side of the men when it comes to love. We tell the girls to put a premium on their kisses and then excuse the boys by saying it's quite the nature of things. DON'T YOU TRAIL OUR BOYS AND MEN? AS USUAL—MAN IS JUST THE BAD BOY AND WOMEN THE GOOD EXAMPLE.

To us—plain language, kissing is not a fine and noble more a reflection of passion. Boys and girls who wish to live up to our high standard of living should not indulge in promiscuous kissing. So Jerry, won't you talk to the men and boys. Tell them that girls and women would like to be good friends and pals and share all kinds of good spots. We are all just human. It is not fair to our sex that men should always be on the defensive. How glad we would be if men would only help us in our aim to be comrades.

Our men and boys go into the world down as they please to do without any sense of square dealing. Is it because women have suffered from this injustice so long that they are refusing to accept what is rightfully their job—to produce the next generation, and to care for it and the home? They like the man's job better and do you blame them? It is the only way they can be on equal footing with them.

THE MOTHER OF A BOY.

Are Girls to Blame?

Dear Mother of a Boy: You have been frank in your dealings with me. Now I am going to give you my truest answer with all love and wish. I do not want you to be shocked by what I am about to say. These opinions are not original with me. They are the psychological findings of the wisest men and women of our day—men and women who are laboring with consecrated hearts to understand, help and uplift mankind. They are the opinions of great preachers, psychologists, doctors, healers and social reformers. Listen to them.

Before I state them let us lay aside all intelligence and unclean antagonism to the term "passion." Passion is holy. It is the great marching call of the generations. Unworthy ones answer to that call as well as worthy ones, and at the best foul things are done. But passion is not foul. It is the gift of God.

You are basing your theory of training on the old assumption that man is the more passionate animal. Mother, I think you are wrong. Man is NOT always the aggressor—woman is NOT always on the defensive.

Appeal of a Heart-Broken Mother

"Geraldine, this is why there is so much wrong and unhappiness in our world. The majority of young girls start going out with boys knowing absolutely nothing but the love-stuff they read and see. They tell a man to the last notch of his endurance with their 'vampire' ways. Because many 'wants to keep them innocent'! Well, I've just about found this out. UNLESS YOU PUT A GIRL ON A DESERT ISLE THESE DAYS YOU CANNOT KEEP HER 'INNOCENT' IN THE SENSE THESE MOTHERS MEAN. THEY ONLY KEEP THEM IGNORANT, WITH AN IGNORANCE FOR WHICH THEY MUST PAY BY A LIFE OF UNHAPPINESS."

I think it would be better to tell these boys and girls the facts of nature and creation in the clean and beautiful way in which the Lord intended them to know them. Instead of letting them pay for their "innocence" by a life of shame and suffering. I have noticed particularly the boys and girls who are left in this ignorance, in contrast to those who are lovingly instructed by their parents. The ignorant miles will try to find out for their own blessed baby selves the answers to their questions and the consequence is that they ask their playmates and then will run off and hide to satisfy their curiosity. On the other hand the child who has been taught the beautiful facts of nature at home does not need to hide, for he can ask mother all he wishes to know.

"Geraldine, in the name of all motherhood, won't you help to fight this awful wrong?"

"A MOTHER."

"Innocence Is Best," Says the Slogan

And in the name of all motherhood, of all decency, I am going to help.

You have heard such letters before. They are not new. The same appeal has been hurled at you and you have answered "innocence is best," and there the matter has stopped. But the matter is not going to stop there now. I am going further than those previous arguments. I am going to bring a more terrible arraignment, than possible neglect of a child and it will not need the weight of my name or deep experience in these matters of virtue and vice to convince you. THE IMMORTAL TRUTH that rings through what I am about to say will strike through to your souls like a knife and convict you. For I, who know of fact, that never may touch your more sheltered lives, tell you this:

SENTIMENTALISTS AND UPHOLDERS OF IGNORANCE, ARE BREEDING THE VICE OF THE WORLD.

STUBBORNNESS, WILLFUL BLINDNESS AND REBELLION AGAINST THE LAW OF NATURE ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SPIRIT THAT CAUSE THE HOWARD STREET HORROR. THAT POSSIBLE neglect of a child and it will not need the weight of my name or deep experience in these matters of virtue and vice to convince you. THE IMMORTAL TRUTH that rings through what I am about to say will strike through to your souls like a knife and convict you. For I, who know of fact, that never may touch your more sheltered lives, tell you this:

The Question Cannot be Dodged Nor Denied

You cannot "buck nature." From the first maturing of consciousness, desires and curiosities are forming in the baby mind. They are forming as surely and as rightly as his other growth is progressing. You cannot stop the growth of his teeth or hair, the development of his digestive organs. Neither can you stop the growth of those equally vital things—the instincts that make for the perpetuation of the race. You may refuse to answer questions, you may hide all books, and deny outside playmates—it will be of no use. You are pitting your strength against GOD. Within that opening soul life will stir and you cannot down it.

But you can do one thing, and that is to think you are doing by your attitude—YOU CAN BREED MENTAL DISEASE. As water stagnates when shut off from normal egress, so a mind stagnates that not move in the freedom which nature willed. You cannot teach your children to forget curiosity, for it is as much a part of him as the nose on his face. BUT YOU CAN TEACH HIM TO HIDE IT. YOU CAN TRY TO SHOW HIM A HOLY MYSTERY FOR EACH COMING GENERATION INTO A GRIMY SECRET. YOU CAN MAKE WHISPERING AND HIDDEN THINGS PART OF THE SOCIAL PROPRIETIES.

One would not countenance enclosed plumbing in a modern kitchen. We war on cockroaches and GREED ENCLOSED PLUMBING IN A CHILD'S MIND? Why turn his curiosities in upon himself? Why take the most basic urge of society and shut it away from all light? Do you wonder that in that darkness which is throw upon the sex question, monstrous things are bred?

When you countenance stealth and hidden morbidity in the home you countenance it in the street—and the nation.

When you deny instruction to a child you teach him to hide from you, to fib to you.

HOW DO I KNOW?
BECAUSE ON MY DESK TODAY LIE SCORES OF LETTERS FROM YOUR CHILDREN WHO ASK ME THE QUESTIONS THEY DO NOT DARE ASK YOU!

These little girls who write to their Jerry with such trust and frankness, and whom Jerry answers in love and faith, are not about kissing. They are trying to flee from kisses. THEY ARE WRITING BECAUSE THEY WANT THOSE KISSES. AND BECAUSE THEY ARE CONFUSED BY A FALSE TRAINING.

Girls are taught that "nice girls" do not feel such things. They are taught that men are hunters—that man is by nature a coarser, more bestial creature while they are finer, more spiritual mold. From the very start of their education a barrier between the two sexes is erected.

Then they take out into life and Mother Nature goes over their eyes and they find that "nice girls" DO "feel such things." They are bewildered, frightened. Instead of recognizing and rejoicing in that first call to a higher service, they feel that they are somehow abnormal. THEY WANT THOSE KISSES. THEY WANT THEM VERY MUCH. THEY WANT THEM AS MUCH AS THE BOYS DO. And why not? They are here on earth to be mothers. Why should not the mothering call sound through their hearts? But mother had said differently. SO THEY HIDE FROM MOTHER.

The boys, too, are tricked. They, too, have been taught this false theory. Speedily they realize that their girl companions are not what they thought they should be. They experiment with increasing conviction that they have made amazing discoveries and that the "old folks" didn't know what they were talking about. SO THEY, TOO, HIDE. I THINK IT IS ALL WRONG. I think it is time that some one with a wide vision and a reverent heart should tell our young people the truth about themselves, and the best teachers are doing that very thing. Teach them that boys and girls alike are heirs of the Holy Fire, and that they must keep its flame pure by clean thoughts, healthy self-discipline and fine adventures.

"Nice Girls" and Men

The Boy Led Astray

And one more thing let me tell all you Mothers. Jerry knows boys and girls—knows them to the innermost places of their hearts. They are telling her things they would not dare tell you for fear of your wrath. BUT THIS THING YOU SHOULD KNOW. Your "nice boy" isn't born with unworthy longings any more than your nice girl. He's just as sensitive and just as potentially pure in his heart. So he goes to the very ignorance of the love that guard him. He is taught that Vice waits in the streets and Virtue in the parlor. He is taught that Sin enters when the Prowling Beast awakens in his heart. So he goes to the parlor without the slightest particle of that Prowling Beast feeling. According to theory all should be well. And that theory, false and unwise, crumbles beneath his feet. That nice girl and that nice boy are suddenly caught by a desire for which they were not prepared. They were told so differently. So there in the parlor and not in the streets, they both learn that hiding game that some day may mean so much heartache. WHOSE FAULT IS IT?

No, I do not think that women are refusing to "produce the next generation and care for it and the home" because their sensitive natures are suffering from a frightful sense of injustice. I think that most of them refuse to do it BECAUSE THEY ARE SO INFERNALLY LATE. A

JAZZ MADE FOR FEET, NOT HEAD, SAYS G. H. WOOD

Music Instructor Declares U. S. Boys Are Neglected in This Art.

"The American boy is the most neglected institution in America today."

With this declaration, Glenn H. Woods, supervisor of music instruction in the Oakland public schools, opened an address before the Oakland Civic Center yesterday afternoon in which he took up the value of more public school instruction in music and pointed out the deficiencies of this country in a musical way.

On the wall Woods hung charts listing names of the great conductors of symphony orchestras and of the members of the national symphony orchestra. They brought out forcefully the dearth of American musicians.

"We don't start right in the education of our children," Woods declared. "In America music is a little cultural hobby with the ladies. In Europe it is a serious art and its practice is encouraged among men. True enough some of our women are great players and great composers, but the greater part of America's music is furnished by European artists."

MANY GOOD SINGERS Woods urged more musical education for boys. He called attention to the fact that boys of school age like "rough stuff" and will not choose to study music under the elective system of selecting school studies. Where they have been required to do so, however, right here in the Oakland schools some amazingly good singers have been turned out, he said.

He also called attention to the work being done by the Oakland schools in teaching orchestration to young students. He paid tribute to the work of the orchestra conductor saying that it was necessary to the work being done by the Oakland schools in teaching orchestration to young students. STUDENT GIFT TO TEACHERS STILL BANNED

The superintendent of schools has taken steps to remind the teachers and students through the department of the rule which prohibits students making gifts to teachers. The rule is an old one, enforced continually, but in view of the approaching Christmas the superintendent was thought to be necessary.

Protest Is Made Against Closing Dimond Canyon Park

Residents in the district surrounding the Dimond Canyon auto park, which has been ordered closed by the park commission, following complaints from certain residents that sanitary facilities in the park were inadequate, have registered a protest with the park officials about the statement that the park was a rendezvous for hobos and vagrants.

Mrs. E. C. Hahn, who resides adjacent to the park, stated that at no time had hobos invaded the district and that the statement, besides being false, threw a bad light on the neighborhood.

"So far as the facilities being misused at the park I am in a position to observe and I know that the people who have camped here are highly respectable people and the type of tourists we like to entertain," said Mrs. Hahn. "I suppose it is all right to close the park during the winter months until the facilities can be improved, but I see no reason why it should be closed indefinitely."

To the contrary, Henry F. Vogt of the park commission stated today that the park would be abandoned and a suitable auto park provided elsewhere.

Oakland Gets Data on Cost S. P. Bridge and Causeway

Complete statistics on the cost of bridging the Southern Pacific tracks at Seventh street, or extending the Southern Pacific causeway from Sixteenth street to Seventh street to cross over all intervening streets, are being finished by the Department of Streets, which employed a special cost-data expert for the work.

A final estimate will be presented to the city council in about a week, it is anticipated.

The city is also getting figures on the cost of borrowing under the railroad tracks, so that when the case comes before the Railroad Commission the city will have costs on every possible method of solving the present Seventh-street grade-crossing problem.

The city has taken action to compel the Southern Pacific to extend its causeway, so that the railroad will bear the burden of expense, but in case this cannot be done and the Railroad Commission rules adversely to the city, the latter will have complete estimates on its own work anyway.

Divorces May Cost More in Nevada

RENO, Nev., Dec. 11.—Nevada is considering increasing the cost of divorces. A plan is under way in Reno for submission to the next legislature to increase the filing fee in divorce cases from $10 to $25 to meet a proposed increase in salaries for the district judges and to defray the cost of an additional judge.

"Not Enough Men to Fill Positions at the Top"

Every large company confronted with the lack of executives.

Speaking a word to young men at the recent luncheon tendered to Captain Robert Dollar by the business men of Oakland, the veteran shipping magnate said:

"Every big business enterprise is confronted with the same problem—that of securing the right kind of men for important places. There are not enough men to fill the positions at the top."

"Yesterday I received a wire from New York, regarding a new branch of business to be opened up by my company. I wired back to go ahead if the right man can be secured to head it."

"I do not believe that business will be started for I do not believe it possible to secure the right man."

"It takes plenty of backbone, plenty of grit to reach the top of the ladder, but there is lots of room at the top. It is only around the bottom of the ladder where things are crowded."

Captain Dollar, known in every part of the world for his success in reaching the top, tells you young men that there is plenty of room for the ambitious. Have you the grit and the backbone to prepare yourself for climbing to the top of the ladder. If so write, telephone or call.
